

Thank you for expressing interest in participating in our upcoming friendly football match. We are thrilled to gather talented young players like yourself for a day of fun, socialisation, skill-building and friendly competition. Please take a moment to carefully read and fill out the following details to register for the event:

1. Participation: You confirm that you are physically fit and able to participate in the football match. Any pre-existing medical conditions that may affect your ability to engage in physical activity should be disclosed to the organizers.
2. Code of Conduct: You commit to behaving in a respectful and sportsmanlike manner towards all participants, officials, and spectators. Any form of verbal, physical, or emotional misconduct will not be tolerated.
3. Liability Waiver: You understand and accept that participation in the football match carries inherent risks, including but not limited to injury or accident. You hereby release the Islamic Society of South Australia [ISSA], its organizers, and volunteers from any liability, claims, or actions arising from such risks.
4. Photography and Media Consent: You grant permission to Islamic Society of South Australia [ISSA] to capture and use photographs, videos, or any other media taken during the event for promotional, marketing, or educational purposes.
5. Child Protection: For participants under the age of 18, a parent or legal guardian's signature is required to provide consent for participation.
6. Confirmation of Participation: Spaces are limited, and participants will be selected on a first-come, first-served basis. Confirmation of participation, along with further details regarding the match, including date, time, and venue, will be communicated to you via the provided contact information.
7. Individual registration: Participants are to register as individuals and not as a team. The team structure shall be determined by the organizers and be communicated to participants accordingly.

We eagerly anticipate your involvement in our friendly football match and the opportunity to create lasting memories together!
