Al Salam Festival Sponsorship Package 2017

Introduction

The Islamic Society of South Australia (ISSA) is a non-profitable welfare organisation that was established in the 1955's. The main objectives of ISSA are to provide the Muslim community with social, educational and spiritual services and activities for them to become contributing members of society with an educated understanding of their faith.

Project Purpose

In 2015, ISSA initiated a new annual tradition titled the "Al-Salam Festival" (Festival of Peace). The Al-Salam Festival 2017 will be the third consecutive festival, which has proved to be a successful and positive event. Adelaide is recognized as the festival state with great events held by significant organizations and communities to give people the opportunity to experience their culture. ISSA would like to also contribute to the festivities South Australia has to offer by giving people the chance to experience the Islamic or Muslim way of life.

An opportunity to influence the view of Islam in Adelaide

This festival is a non-profitable project with the purpose of creating awareness of the Muslim community and Islam. This will be achieved through providing entertainment and informative activities that will allow people to grasp a general perspective of the religion and address any queries they may have.

ISSA aims to address the stereotypes of Islam perceived by the public as a religion of violence and anger. It hopes to bring the Muslim and Non-Muslim community together to share, discuss and enjoy the multicultural society that our nation is. The proposal is to celebrate this festival by engaging the wider community with traditional foods, exciting rides, innovative fun and educational show bags, live entertainment from around Australia, innovative and informative stalls and much more.

EVENT DETAILS

Time: 11am – 7pm

Date: 28th January 2017

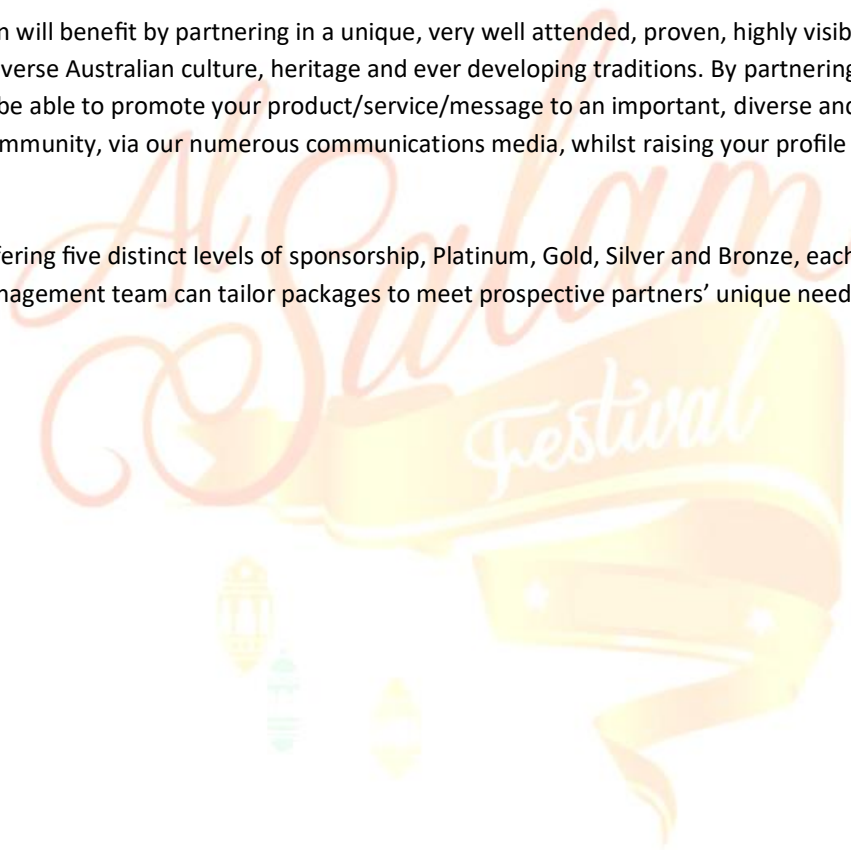

Venue: Veale Gardens - South Terrace Adelaide, South Australia

WHY SPONSOR OUR EVENT?

The festival is expected to have several thousand in attendance. Businesses who are looking to reach a large, active and savvy audience will have the opportunity to do so and expose their products and services at this event. There will be numerous opportunities for businesses to strengthen their brands through the advertising and marketing leading up to the festival and also more importantly during the event.

Your organisation will benefit by partnering in a unique, very well attended, proven, highly visible, event that celebrates our diverse Australian culture, heritage and ever developing traditions. By partnering with the Festival you will be able to promote your product/service/message to an important, diverse and discerning section of the community, via our numerous communications media, whilst raising your profile and standing in the Community.

In addition to offering five distinct levels of sponsorship, Platinum, Gold, Silver and Bronze, each with its own benefits, the management team can tailor packages to meet prospective partners' unique needs.
