

Warriors Are Heroes

Unknown

Everyday there was a hero
Every day there was a warrior
Everyday there was a hero who sacrificed to who save people's lives
People who were in need
People who were sick
People who were wishing to see the light
Light of happiness
Light of joy
Light of hope to wake up from the nightmare
Nightmare of tears
Nightmare of fears
Nightmare of worries from losing
Losing a life
Losing a friend
Losing a mother
Losing a father
Losing a person who we love
A person who has a family
A person who has a friend
A person who has a dream
A dream to heal
A dream to smile
A dream to fight the evil Covid
Covid who killed lives
Covid who destroyed lives
Covid who changed lives
Heroes were here for us
Heroes who saved us
Heroes who made us feel safe
Heroes who made us feel cared
Thank you for every hero out there
Thank you for every hero who saved a life
