PURITY

Purity is the root meaning of the term zakat which implies 'to cleanse' or 'purification', an aim directly mentioned in the Quran;

“Take, [O Muhammad], from their wealth a charity by which you purify them and cause them increase and invoke [Allah’s blessings] upon them. Indeed, your invocations are a comfort for them. And Allah is Hearing and Knowing”

At Taubah: 103.

Assisting the less fortunate is a highly honourable act. Purify your wealth for the will of Allah ﷻ, acknowledge that everything we own belongs to Allah ﷻ and work towards the advancement of the Muslim ummah.

EMPATHY

A cornerstone of Islam is empathy for the poor and vulnerable. The Prophet Muhammad ﷺ said;

“The believers in their mutual love, mercy and sympathy are just like one body. When one of the limbs suffers, the whole body responds to it with sleeplessness and fever”

(Muslim).

It is important to continually reflect on what it means to be a brother or sister to a fellow human. We should clothe ourselves with compassion, humility, kindness, love, mercy and patience towards all of Allah’s creation.

EMPOWERMENT

Zakat cleanses your soul, purifies and multiplies your wealth, and is a socio-religious tool to help eradicate poverty in a community or society.

Zakat is a virtue of generosity, which one needs to truly commit to humanity. It is a spiritual bridge to connect to Allah ﷻ and build bonds between the giver and the recipient. This act teaches us to live selflessly and free ourselves from the love of possessions and greed in aim of returning to Allah in the most pious form of ourselves.
