Ramadan Carnival 2026

A night for families, neighbours, and the wider community to come together and share the spirit of Ramadan. An evening filled with food trucks, arts, culture, and connection — celebrating the beauty of Ramadan through flavours, creativity, and togetherness.
2 locations, double celebrations.

5.00pm to 11.00pm
Open to All

Ramadan Carnival Location #1

Saturday, 28th Feb 2026
Masjid Abu Bakr Assidiq (Wandana Mosque)

Ramadan Carnival Location #2

Saturday, 7th Mar 2026
Masjid Omar Bin Alkhattab (Marion Mosque)

Additional feature in Ramadan Carnival #2

We're inviting the whole community (both Muslims and non-Muslims) to break fast together. We'll be handing out dates, water, and fresh fruits so everyone can join in the experience of iftar. They can purchase food or other drinks from the vendors lined in our carpark.

Condada Ave will be closed and transformed into an open-air iftar area where people can sit, relax, and enjoy the moment together.

Registration essential:

Respect and Compassion

- Please be mindful of our neighbors, especially during late hours.
- Keep noise to a minimum when arriving or leaving the mosque.
- Show extra care and courtesy to our elderly, families with prams, and those needing assistance.
- Let's embody the spirit of Ramadan by treating everyone with kindness, patience, and respect.

Safety and Parking Matters

As we welcome the blessed month of Ramadan, we kindly remind everyone to prioritize safety and responsible parking.

Parking Guidelines

- Kindly park your vehicles responsibly, avoiding blockage of pavements, driveways, and emergency exits.
- Follow the instructions of our volunteers and show respect as they carry out their duties.
- Be mindful of designated parking spaces and avoid double parking.

Child Safety

- Parents, please ensure your children are always supervised, especially in the parking areas, surrounding streets and during prayer times.
- Let's work together to create a safe environment for everyone.

General Safety

- Be aware of your surroundings, especially during peak hours and nighttime prayers.
- Report any concerns or incidents to our security team or management.
